

Superintendent of Schools

Parsippany-Troy Hills (NJ) Township School District

Parsippany-Troy Hills, the largest school district in Morris County, NJ (7,000 students, 2 high schools, 2 middle schools, 10 elementary schools), is committed to effective teaching and productive learning within a community in which diversity is celebrated.

Qualifications:

NJ School Administrator Certificate or Certificate of Eligibility

Experience as a Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, or comparable central office position is required

Classroom and building level administrative experience are preferred

The successful candidate for superintendent should be able to demonstrate the following:

- > Instructional leader with a strong curriculum background
- > Experience with short and long range educational and facilities planning
- > Leadership in the supervision of a K-12 district
- > Management skills in dealing with staff, public relations, policy, and school construction
- > Excellent communication and problem solving skills

In addition, the superintendent should be keenly aware of educational trends and their practical application, augmented by positive interpersonal skills, enthusiasm and good humor. He/she should be a visible and approachable presence in the schools as she/he promotes a team approach, involving staff, administrators, parents, and the Board, in a united effort to provide effective education for all students.

Effective date: July 1, 2017

All candidates must submit a letter of interest, a complete resume, three references, and a copy of the NJ School Administrator Certificate no later than January 30, 2017 to:

Board of Education Search Committee
Parsippany-Troy Hills Township Schools
P.O. Box 52
292 Parsippany Road, Parsippany, NJ, 07054

Specific questions may be directed to Judith Wilson, Consultant judithiveswilson@gmail.com